The Epistle Romans 4:13-25

For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") —in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22:22-30 Deus, Deus meus

All Sing.

Tone II.1

- 22 Praise the LORD, you that / fear him;*
stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel;
all you of Jacob's line, / give glory.
- 23 For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither does he hide his / face from them;*
but when they cry to him / he hears them.
- 24 My praise is of him in the great as/sembly;*
I will perform my vows
in the presence of those / who worship him.

- 25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
and those who seek the LORD shall / praise him:*
- “May your heart live / for ever!”
- 26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the / LORD;*
- and all the families of the nations shall bow / before him.
- 27 For kingship belongs to the / LORD;*
- he rules over / the nations.
- 28 To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in / worship;*
- all who go down to the dust fall / before him.
- 29 My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall / serve him;*
- they shall be known as the LORD’s / for ever.
- 30 They shall come and make known to a people / yet unborn*
- the saving deeds / that he has done.

The Gospel Mark 8:31-38

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.

People

Jesus began to teach his disciples that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

An Affirmation

Presider Let us declare our faith in God.

People I have the courage to enter this room and call it a cell.
Folding myself and putting myself away.
For my whole life, I will be an amateur,
but an amateur striving

I enter this room and call it vigilance, making my ego the threadbare rug I walk on.
I hold the fane of my folded hands,
before my quiet face.

I have the courage to enter this room and be alone with dialogue.
I take the name of silence and let it speak,
coming from always, going away everywhere and nowhere.

I take everything I have been.
I take everything I can become.
I freely enter this room as the threshold of spirit,
staying vigilant through each midnight hour and learning
the language of the stars that are both absent and present.

Every person I meet will be God.
Every one of my exhalations will become the name of God.
I take the name of God and breathe it in,
until each dying breath breathes God.

All may now offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud, ending with "This is my prayer" to which all will respond "Amen."

Confession of Sin

- Presider As we draw near to the place of atonement:
 Give us tears to see the wonder of your presence;
 Give us tears to see the wasting of your people,
 Give us tears to see the wounding of your son.

A period of silence is observed.

- All We are the people who helped make the wood on which you were crucified, and still we misuse your creation; We are the people that helped make the nails that pierced your body, yet still we use work for gain at others' expense; We are the people that did nothing to stop your betrayers, yet still are ruled by comfort or cowardice.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Offertory Anthem Hear My Prayer

Felix Mendelssohn

Chancel Choir, Logan Clark, soloist

*Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear!
Thyself from my petition do not hide.
Take heed to me! Hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee,
Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide.*

*The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast!
Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast!
The wicked oppress me, Ah where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry!*

*My heart is sorely pained within my breast,
my soul with deathly terror is oppressed,
trembling and fearfulness upon me fall,
with horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear me call!*

Please stand as able.

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider This is the table, not of the Church but of God. It is to be made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more. So, come. You who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, not because I invite you: it is God, and it is God's will that you who want God should meet God here.

Sanctus

William Bradley Roberts

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and, might. Heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Presider Now let us hear the story of how this sacrament began. On the night Jesus was betrayed, he sat at supper with his disciples. While they were eating, he took a piece of bread, said a blessing, broke it and gave it to them with the words, "This is my body. It is broken for you. Do this to remember me." Later on he took a cup of wine, saying, "This cup is God's new covenant, sealed with my blood. Drink from it, all of you to remember me."

So now, following Jesus' example and command, we take this bread and this wine, the ordinary things of the world which Christ will make special.

Jesus Christ, present with us now, for all that you have done and all that you promised. What have we to offer?

People Our hands are empty,
Our hearts are sometimes full of wrong things.
But with you is mercy
And the power to change us.

Presider So as we do in this place what you did in an upstairs room, send down your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine that they may become for us your body, healing, forgiving and making us whole; loving and caring in the world until your kingdom comes.

All Amen!

Presider And now, let us pray:

People Heavenly Father, heavenly Mother,
Holy and blessed is your true name.
We pray for your reign of peace to come,
We pray that your good will be done,
Let heaven and earth become one.
Give us this day the bread we need,
Give it to those who have none.
Let forgiveness flow like a river between us,
From each one to each one.
Lead us to holy innocence
Beyond the evil of our days —
Come swiftly Mother, Father, come.
For yours is the power and the glory and the mercy:
Forever your name is All in One. Amen.

Fraction Anthem

William Bradley Roberts

Christ our Pass-o-ver is sac - ri-ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast. _____

Song 46

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Let us pray.

People Jesus, You have put your life into our hands, now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us so we may go forth into the world, a people restored and enabled to do the work you have given us to do. In God's name we pray. Amen.

Closing Hymn 142 Lord, who throughout these forty days

St. Flavian

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

March 18th, 10am, Switch Sunday!

Adults- ever wondered what children are doing during the 10am hour on Sunday mornings? Children - curious about what goes on behind the scenes during worship? All your questions will be answered during SWITCH SUNDAY!

In lieu of our traditional Sermon Seminar, adults - especially parents - will be encouraged to head downstairs to experience a day-in-the-life of youth Sunday School while the children stay in the Nave to learn more about how Eucharist is set up, how the organ works, and what the vesting sacristy is.

The traditional Sermon Seminar will still be offered in Baxter Hall, but we hope you will take this time to enter into a deeper understanding of all that goes on in this Parish on a Sunday morning. Mark your calendars!
