First Reading

When the Song of Angels is Stilled —by Howard Thurman

When the song of the angels is stilled
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and the princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able.

The Holy Gospel Mark 1:21-28

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.

People

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the Sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

An Affirmation

Presider

Let us declare our faith in God.

People

We believe in God the Father,
from whom every family
in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son,
who lives in our hearts through faith,
and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
who strengthens us
with power from on high.
We believe in one God;
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader You have come to dwell among us, O Christ, to share our lives and earthly concerns. We give thanks that God's very nature has been made known to us. Pour forth your light and your wisdom on us and on your church. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader Make this church a place of welcome as we make our way through troubled times. May our doors always be open to those who come seeking nourishment. May we go out into the world as a healing presence as we build your Beloved Community. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader Make our nation great in the ways of justice, peace, respect for all people, and a protector of the natural bounty that you have bestowed upon the earth. Give us leaders who are wise, who are good, and who work tirelessly for the welfare of all. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader We pray for all those who would influence our public dialogue. Pour out your wisdom on all journalists, historians, politicians, and activists. Make them persons of integrity. May they seek to promote understanding that builds our common life together and does not destroy it. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader Make our communities great in the ways of mercy. Forgive us when we forget your call to love one another and to care for the poor, the sick, and the marginalized. Help us look beyond our own safety and well-being and tend to the needs of all your people. May your light shine upon us,

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader We pray for those forced to live on our streets, whether because of economic adversity, mental illness, or addictions. Give us wisdom and generosity of spirit to solve the problems that cause this suffering. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader Open our eyes to the sacredness of the world around us, and open our hearts to those who do not look like us, speak our language, or who worship you in different ways. Remind us, when we forget, that we are all part of the great community of nations, and that we are all your beloved. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader Lead us into the ways of peace, where brother will no longer rise up against brother, where families will be safe in their homes, where there will be no violence in our streets. Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. May your light shine upon us.

People And the glory of God shall be revealed.

Leader All may now offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud, ending with "This is my prayer" to which all will respond, "Amen."

A time for individual prayers is observed.

Presider Let us pray.

People Gracious God, in this season of light, open our hearts and minds to your call to us. Receive our humble gifts of service, just as you received the gifts of the Magi. May our work here on earth make us a light unto the nations as we reflect your love for us onto a hurting world. May we remember that your light shines in the darkness and the darkness shall not overcome it. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of God be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the holy one.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the holy and living God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Continue responsively.

It is right to give you thanks, Almighty God, you who were before all worlds began, who is outside of time; who will be for all eternity.

You are our beginning, and in you we find our perfect end.

All our years and moments are hidden in you;

Through you all things were made; in you all things are sustained.

Therefore, we join in the song of praise all of creation is singing:

Sanctus S 129

Robert Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy God, you made us for relationship, to live in harmony with you and all creation.

Whenever we walk away from you, that harmony is broken;

Our intimacy with you becomes fractured and strained;

Our relationships are marked by tension and strife.

The very creation becomes broken and disordered, with storms and tumults.
Peace becomes the exception; conflict our daily bread.

Into our turmoil you sent your beloved son, Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
He came as one of us, and saw how we lived with each other and the earth.
And he said: Enough. Look. See another way. He said, "Why are you afraid?"

He stilled storms, banished evil, healed diseases, overcame death.
He said, "Peace be with you," and breathed upon his disciples the Holy Spirit.
He gives us peace in unpeaceful times;
he makes us agents of change in an unpeaceful world.

On his night of greatest disruption, our Lord had supper with his friends.
He took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to them all, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Whenever you eat it,
Do this to remember me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them all, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new promise, poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it,
Do this to remember me."

And so we stop to remember him:
We remember him in the breaking of the bread.
We recall his suffering and death.
We celebrate his rising and ascension.
We look forward to his eternal reign of peace.

Come upon this bread and this wine, most Holy Spirit:
Feed us deep in our spirits with the very life of Christ himself.
Come to us, Lord Jesus, by the Holy Spirit:
Give us your peace in all circumstances; help us to trust you more and more.

Fill us now, we pray, as we come to your table to enjoy a foretaste of the feast of perfect peace through our Lord Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.
AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:
People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, they will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

All sing.

Al - le - lu - ia. Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;
 There - fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia.

Music During Communion

Word of God, come down on earth

Liebster Jesu, arr. John Ferguson

Chancel Choir

*Word of God, come down on earth, living rain from heav'n descending;
 Touch our hearts and bring to birth faith and hope and love unending.
 Word almighty, we revere you; Word made flesh, we long to hear you.
 Word eternal, throned on high, word that brought to life creation,
 Word that came from heav'n to die, crucified for our salvation,
 Saving Word, the world restoring, speak to us, your love outpouring.
 Word that speaks God's tender love, one with God beyond all telling,
 Word that sends us from above, God the Spirit, with us dwelling,
 Word of truth, to all truth lead us, Word of life, with one Bread feed us.*

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.
