The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community .

Opening Hymn 433 We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing

Kremser

Opening Sentences

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Collect

Presider God be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All O God, you have shown us how to turn our enemies into neighbors and to forgive those who have wronged us seventy times seven. Teach us to be bold in this most difficult of tasks; Following the example of Christ, who healed us by brokenness, give us also the strength to reach beyond our anger and our hate to thereby pull forth peace, grace and creative healing from the painful depths of our own wounds. Amen

The Epistle 1 Timothy 1:12-17

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners-- of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader Let us hear what the Spirit says to us.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel Luke 15:1-10

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

People

Glo - ry to you, Lord Christ.____

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

"Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.____

An Affirmation

Presider Let us affirm our faith together:

People

We believe in God the Creator,

By whom every person in heaven and on earth is named.

We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high.

We believe in one God: Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader

In peace and humility we pray to you, Lord God.

For all people in their daily life and work;

People

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Leader

For this community, this nation and all the nations and peoples of the world.

People

For all who seek to ensure justice, freedom, and peace in this country and everywhere.

Leader

For the just and proper use of your creation;

People For all victims of hunger, fear, injustice, violence and oppression.

Leader For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and those without homes.

Leader For the special needs and concerns of this congregation, especially this day as we remember the horror and loss we and so many others experienced fifteen years ago.

People We pray for the souls of those who died suddenly and violently on September 11, 2001; we ask comfort and peace for those who still mourn them.

Leader We grieve for the ongoing warfare in so many places and, in some, for unanticipated consequences of our actions.

People We pray for wisdom for all who work to promote peace and understanding among individuals and among nations and for resilience, fortitude and hope among all people.

Leader in the midst of sadness and recollection, we celebrate the promise of this new year in our parish life.

People May we never take this freedom for granted or forget to give thanks for our many blessings.

Leader We invite all to offer prayers of petition, intercession, or thanksgiving silently or if aloud, ending with "This is my prayer," to which all will respond, "Amen."

A time for individual prayers is observed.

Leader Let us pray.

People We offer our prayers in the faith that you, O God, love us, that Jesus our risen brother walks with us, and that the Holy Spirit strengthens us. Amen.

A Prayer of Confession

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is observed.

People Most merciful God,
 we confess that we have sinned against you
 in thought, word, and deed,
 by what we have done,
 and by what we have left undone.
 We have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
 We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
 For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
 have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Presider God forgives you; forgive yourself and go in peace.

All Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of God be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty Father, Creator of heaven and earth.

For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus WLP 858

Bless - ed is _____ the one who comes in the name of the Lord. _____ Ho - san - na in _____ the high - est, _____ Ho - san - na in _____ the high - est.

Presider We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

All
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Jesus taught us, we pray:

People
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

People All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

Music During Communion

The King of love my shepherd is

St. Columba

Boys & Girls Choir; Libbi Rivera, director

*The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his, and he is mine for ever.*

Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.

*Thou spread'st a table in my sight; thy unction grace bestoweth;
and oh, what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!*

*And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house for ever.*

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Words by Frederick W. Faber, alt.
Music by Calvin Hampton, arr. Rick McNeely
Chancel Choir

*There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice, which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior; there is healing in his blood.*

*There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment given.
There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.*

*For the love of God is broader than the measures of our mind,
And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful, we should take him at his word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving for the goodness of the Lord.*

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Closing Hymn 347 Go forth for God; go to the world in peace

Litton

The Blessing

Presider Life is short, and we have but little time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and forever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Presider Go into the world and know how much a tired and hurting world needs your strength and gladness, for there are deeds of compassion and courage that will never be done unless you do them; and words of hope and healing that will never be spoken unless you speak them. And now let us go forth into the world in peace, to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

Official Parish Calendar online at: <http://www.stmarks.net/connect/calendar/>

From the Office

1. Help needed for data clean up! St. Mark's is getting ready to move to a new membership database. Our current one is out of date and new technology can help us keep information current. However, we need to make sure our current records are accurate. Copies of the current directory will be available for you to check and correct with your current information at the table in the foyer. Please take a minute to stop by and update your information (even if you believe you've already given your information to the office).

From the Vestry & Parish Leadership

2. 2017 Canvass: We're starting off the 2017 Canvass just as we did last year, by asking our faithful canvassers to call our members and Make Connections to find out how things are going and what concerns/suggestions folks may have. Last year, this feedback was relayed as appropriate to the clergy and parish leadership, who got great benefit from the better understanding of the state of our parish. If you have volunteered to be a canvasser, thank you so much! Otherwise, stand by to get your call -- and be ready to let us know how things are going for you. Questions? Send emails to Nora Howell at stmarkscanvass@gmail.com.
3. Invitation to Gardeners: The garden along 3rd Street is awaiting a rain garden. There are purple and white balloon flowers that will be lost. If you would like these for your garden, please dig up at will. If you'd like to help weed-whack, please contact Fritz Henn!

Worship

4. 11:15 Bread Rota: October Dates Available: For the 11:15 service, we have volunteers through October 9. That leaves 10/16, 10/23 and 10/30. Any takers? Remember, as of now, we are requesting only bread. Sign up online at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0949acac29a6fe3-bread>. If that is too complicated to manage, please email Cecilie Jones at cecill@mac.com and or call on our home phone: 202-479-4656.
5. MARK YOUR CALENDARS (the sometimes) 10:00 am Morning Services: On the rare occasion that we only have the 10am and 5pm service we wanted to make sure that you had the dates. Here they are.
 - September 11 - Kickoff Sunday and All Parish Picnic
 - October 2 - Earth Mass & Blessing of the Pets

Christian Education

6. CATECHESIS: Have you ever wondered what goes on in the Catechesis classrooms? Wanted to give back to St. Mark's by teaching Sunday School? Hoping to connect more closely with St. Mark's youth? We are looking for a few good volunteers to help teach. Catechesis runs from late September through May each year. Training is provided. If you'd prefer to try a couple classes before committing to the full year, that's ok too - we welcome any participation! All teachers will need to complete the "Safeguarding God's Children" class. Please contact Kris Humphrey (kristenjhumphrey@gmail.com) or Nora Howell (nora.howell.va@gmail.com) for more information.

7. HAVE YOU EVER HAD A HARD TIME UNDERSTANDING THE PARABLES OF JESUS? The Wednesday Bible Class will be looking for understanding using Westar Scholar Brandon Scott's book Re-Imagine the World. The Eerdmans Bible Dictionary defines parable as "... similes or metaphors, sometimes extended into narratives, which involve everyday life and objects and typical events." You can purchase the book on your own or we will order books for about $13 each through Westar. Class starts on Wednesday, 09/07 at 11 am until 12:15 pm. Brown bag lunch follows. Location: Elders Room in undercroft. CE Cost: $25. Coordinator: Raiford Gaffney, rgaffneydc@gmail.com.
8. Important Sunday School Announcements: Sunday School will start on September 18. There will be a Sunday School Open House for families to meet their teachers and see their classrooms today Sunday, September 11, after the 10:00 AM service. Questions? Contact Joe Calizo (jcalizo@gmail.com) and Lucy Brown (lucybrown66@gmail.com).
9. CATECHESIS TRAINING: Have you ever thought about how lovely it would be to sit in peace with small children, praying and singing and working with materials to deepen their – and your – relationship with God? The fundamental Catechesis training is a great opportunity to delve into the basics of our faith, learn a language to speak about God with children, and learn how to "be" with children in Sunday School's Montessori-based Catechesis program. The format is one Saturday a month through May 2017, with the first session on Saturday, September 24th, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm in the Library. Following sessions will be settled on during our first meeting. It's not necessary to teach Sunday School during the same year you take the training, but it helps reinforce what you learn! Call or email Nora Howell at 703-328-1376 / nora.howell.va@gmail.com to learn more and sign up.

13. Cows – A Security Threat? On Sept. 19 at 6:00 pm join us for an evening of food and film from Palestine. After a demonstration by Chef Bassem Hazboun, culinary professor at Dar al-Kalima University in Bethlehem, we'll screen The Wanted 18 followed by a Q&A with producer, Saed Antoni. Through a clever mix of stop motion animation and interviews, The Wanted 18 recreates the true story of the Israeli army's pursuit of 18 cows whose independent milk production on a Palestinian farm was declared "a threat to the national security.." A light meal will be served. Sponsored by the Mid East Working Group. Suggested donation $20. <http://www.brightstarsbethlehem.org/>

14. CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN SOUP KITCHEN VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: The Washington City Church of the Brethren (COB), located at the corner of N. Carolina Avenue and 4th Street, SE, needs volunteers to assist with their soup kitchen operations, which functions weekly on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 P.M. Volunteers provide assistance with food preparation, service, and clean up, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 P.M. 15. Syrian Refugees - Coming This Month! Lutheran Social Services/National Capital Area has told the Lutheran Church of the Reformation and Capitol Hill Methodist Church that we can expect a refugee family in September. If you would like to be a part of the group forming to welcome and support them, there will be a briefing on the Good Neighbor program this Wednesday at 7:00 PM at the Methodist Church at 421 Seward Square, SE. Please let Karen Getman at karen.getman@gmail.com, Mandy Paust at atpaustak@gmail.com or Maureen Shea at mtshea@aol.com know if you'll be attending. Once we know more about the family, we'll have a meeting at St. Mark's. Sponsored by the Mid East Working Group.
16. Toiletries and Dried Foods Needed for Samaritan Ministry. The Samaritan Ministry currently has a sufficient supply of canned food but still needs pasta, cereal, Rice-a-Roni, and other dried food products as well as full-size toiletries for both men and women. 17. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SUNDAY SUPPERS: Sunday Suppers is a local, non-profit that serves the homeless meals at two D.C. locations every Sunday night. 19. Celebrate Suella Henn's Legacy, September 25 – During the time she was with us, Suella contributed greatly to our community: through the Caregivers, the Liturgy Planning Team, the Choir, and many other programs. Thankfully, St. Mark's will continue to benefit from Suella's questing mind and spirit through her family's generous donation of her books to the Verna Dozier Library, located in the Undercroft. On Sunday the 25th, the Library Committee will have a selection of her books on display in Baxter Hall and at the 5 pm service. The Committee and various "Friends of Suella's" will also be sponsoring coffee hour and pub lunch. Please join us to celebrate her remarkably rich life and this wonderful, living legacy. For more information, see the upcoming issue of the Winged Lion Review or contact Peter Hawley, pawleywash@verizon.net.
