The Advent/Christmas Wreath, which was given to St. Mark's by Scilla Adams in loving memory of her father, Colonel Neil Ramsay, was hand-forged by Richard A. Martin, a metal sculpture in Alexandria, Virginia. This work is made of steel with solid-link chains and hammered drip pans, painted black and measuring three feet in diameter, with a cross hanging beneath the central candle

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

Our Christmas schedule is found on Page 11 of this bulletin

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)

9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)

10:00 am Sermon Seminar

11:15 am Holy Eucharist

5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

INSTALLATION OF THE ICON

Each week, we are installing an icon written by Tracy Councill. They will remain on the Rood Screen during Advent. Tracy invites you to share your thoughts and reflections on the season of Advent on the blue and cream cards attached to the walls on either side of the nave.

God, you reveal your truth and love in surprising moments of grace: We bless this icon of the Holy Face of Jesus Christ in the name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity.

May it indeed be a blessing to us, reminding us to seek you in each moment of our lives. Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES

A voice cries out: In the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

A period of silence is observed.

COLLECT

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray:

Praise and honor to you, living God; your coming will be like a thief in the night, like lightning flashing across the sky. Grant that we may be ready, and let our answer be: Come Lord Jesus.

Amen.

The people sit.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE Micah 5:2-5a

You, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God.

And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth; and he shall be the one of peace.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God!

The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL Luke 1:39-45 (46-55)

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.

Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly;

he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

MUSIC FOR MEDITATION

AFFIRMATION

We believe in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of Sarah, Rebecca, and Rachel, who welcomes the stranger, journeys with us through life, and leads us to new beginnings.

We believe in the God of Moses, who frees us from oppression, who guides us through the deserts in our lives, and helps us find refuge in the wilderness.

We believe in the God of the prophets, who calls for justice in our land and cares for the poor.

We believe in Jesus Christ, who brings the Gospel to us, who is God's unconditional love for everyone.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who forms and molds us into God's image, who sends us out to serve God and the whole creation, who moves us to act with love and hope.

A period of silence is observed.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

God, as we enter this season of preparation and begin a new church year, we cry out from the wilderness of our confusion.

Jesus's limitless love and John's prophetic sight call us to find a path through the darkness that engulfs us. Inspire us to make your church a beacon of light in a dark and lonely world, that we may speak the truth of your love with boldness and courage. God, in our darkness,

Light our way.

John's voice crying in the wilderness calls us to build a society that cares for everyone. Inspire us and the leaders of this nation to follow in the footsteps of Jesus and John, to overturn the power that creates suffering, and to put to death the false saviors of anger and tribalism. God, in our darkness,

Light our way.

Elizabeth, pregnant with John, proclaimed the power of Jesus still in Mary's womb. Remind us to care for your creation, still pregnant with so many possibilities, and yet threatened by our negligence. God, in our darkness,

Light our way.

Mary's song calls us to lift up the lowly and fill the hungry with good things. Instill in us the faith, courage, and wisdom to be your hands in this city, feeding the hungry, housing the homeless, and healing the sick. God, in our darkness,

Light our way.

In Mary's pregnant expectation, we find hope. Draw all those who have died closer to your peace and love, and comfort all who mourn for loved ones lost. God, in our darkness,
Light our way.

The people are invited to offer prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud, at this time. You may choose to conclude by saying, "this is my prayer," to which the congregation will respond: "Amen."

Together let us pray:

Creator, you give us light. Jesus our brother, you show us how to care for all. Holy Spirit, you give us the faith and power to work to create your kingdom. Using these gifts, let us shine forth your light and love in all we do.

Amen.

CONFESSION

Happy are those whose sins are forgiven, whose wrongs are pardoned. I will confess my sins to the Holy One, I will not conceal my wrongdoings.

Silence

God forgives and heals us.

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us, some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

God forgives you. Forgive others; forgive yourself.

Silence

Through Christ, God has put away our sin: let us approach our God in peace.

Amen.

THE PEACE

And so: may the peace of the Incarnate One be always with you!

And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

God is present here.

God is always with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Holy One.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might!

Heaven and earth are full of your glory;

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord;

Hosanna in the highest!

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us.

He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

He yearned to draw all the world to himself, yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice:

Incarnate God, reveal yourself to us that we might reflect your loving light.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with Mary, Mark, Elizabeth, and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

AMEN.

Please note that during the season of Advent, we will pray with the contemporary translation of the Lord's Prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name;

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread,

And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil,

For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia! Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us,
Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Blessed be God who calls us together,

Praise to God who makes us one people.

Blessed be God who has forgiven our sin.

Praise to God who gives hope and freedom.

Blessed be God whose Word is proclaimed.

Praise to God who is revealed in love.

Blessed be God who alone has called us.

Therefore we offer all that we are and all that we shall become.

Accept, O God, our sacrifice of praise.

Accept our thanks for all you have done. Our hands were empty, and you have filled them. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what you would have us do, that the Spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in your light we may see light, and in your straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. And now, the Blessing of the One, Holy, and undivided Trinity be with you this day and always.

Amen!

DISMISSAL

Send us out, O God, with tenderheartedness, to touch an ordinary everyday world with the promise of your holiness.

May we carry your love out to the world!

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

THE WAY OF LOVE
Practices for Jesus-Centered Life

The deep roots of our Christian tradition offer us a path to grow more deeply with Jesus Christ at the center of our lives so that we can bear witness to his way of love in and for the world. For centuries, monastic communities have shaped their lives around rhythms and disciplines for following Jesus together. Such a pattern is known as a “Rule of Life.” The Way of Love: Practices for Jesus-Centered Life was developed by our Presiding Bishop, the Most Reverend Michael Curry, to outline a Rule for the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement. Throughout the season of Epiphany, the Reverends Michele Morgan and Scott Lipscomb will lead a preaching series reflecting on Bishop Curry’s proposed rule to ask how we can apply Jesus’s wisdom to our lives today.

The Advent Vestments and Hangings, made by Tracy Councill and Doris Burton, were a gift of the St. Mark's Arts Council in 2002. The design themes are from Isaiah. One chasuble, taken from the prophecies about a new Jerusalem, is intended to suggest anyone/everyone's journey as lit by the Star of Bethlehem. The other chasuble represents the Jesse Tree: a dead stump putting forth living branches that become a home for the spirit of God.

The chalice veil repeats the Jesse Tree image and incorporates the star/cross from the chasuble. The presider's stole introduces the theme of swords made into plowshares, here represented by a disused sword overtaken by morning glory vines, which symbolize love. The pulpit falls illustrate four images of the Peaceable Kingdom: a child playing around the adder's den; the lion and lamb together; swords turning into plowshares; and justice for all people.

Two stoles and the bread cover, woven by Doris Burton, are reminiscent of the homespun fabrics commonplace in the Holy Land. They include pink threads to acknowledge Advent III, Gaudete Sunday.

The Chrismon Trees in the baptistery were made in 1970 and donated to St. Mark's by Jeanie Anderson and Alys Smith of Chapin, SC, Mary Cooper's mother and godmother. They have helped to decorate the church during the Christmas season every year since.

Chrismon trees are normally evergreens, which symbolize eternal life. The lights are always white and the ornaments are white gold, the liturgical colors for the Christmas season. The ornaments are ancient symbols for the life and ministry of Jesus Christ, such as the descending dove, fish, various crosses, the shepherd's crook, chalices, shells, and fishing boats.

Originated by Lutheran churches, Chrismon trees are now widely used in Christian churches of many denominations.
